NOTE—The following pieces represent a series of coins of the denomination of one and two reales about which no information seems to be available. The design is quite similar to that of the regular Lima issue of the middle part of the 18th century, but the workmanship seems to be much more modern. There is some resemblance to the two real pieces issued in Venezuela in 1818, 1819, 1820. There does not seem to be any way of accounting for the curious mixture of figures where the date is supposed to be placed.

When is a Sale a Sale?

You spent a lot of time on your coins and a lot of money--most likely, you paid - CASH - or within a reasonable time, if purchased at auctions.

Now you want to sell your collection and you have a right to expect to get CASH - or payment within a reasonable time if you sell at auction.

We respectfully solicit your offering and will buy outright for CASH or sell at Auction at reasonable terms, and WILL PAY IN FULL WITHIN 30 DAYS OF THE DATE OF THE SALE. Advances arranged should you desire. Write us for terms and reservations and remember * A Sale is a Sale

WHEN YOU GET PAID.
